

TeleQuad Medical Project

Goals – To provide a medical infrastructure for twenty planned cities and ancillary projects.

Phase I Planning and Development

Personnel

- (a) Stevan Cordas DO MPH – Program Manager
- (b) Darrell Steele MD – Clinic development consultant
- (c) Nancy Didrikson PhD – Preventive medicine and education consultant
- (d) Jerry McGill PhD – Behavioral Medicine consultant
- (e) Dorian Fox – Administrative assistant (coordinator)
- (f) Jeffrey Fox – Construction coordinator and technical consultant
- (g) Hospital Corporation of America representative consultant
- (h) HealthSouth Corporation consultant –Rehabilitation and imaging consultant
- (i) Quest Laboratories consultant –outpatient medical laboratory

Projected facilities per city

Administrative

- (a) Corporate facilities
 - a. Office of Emergency Preparedness
 - b. Local Emergency Planning Committee
 - c. Transportation coordination –Ambulance –buses – helicopter
 - d. Medical Site Headquarters (Administration)
 - i. Legal
 - ii. Accounting
 - iii. R & D
 - iv. Coordination
 - v. Informatics
 - 1. Internet
 - 2. At stores
 - 3. Connecting all medical facilities
 - 4. Connecting medical facilities with key medical centers –Poison control, Toxicology, Forensics
 - 5. Communicating with local, state and federal sources
 - vi. Security
 - vii. Centralized Billing
 - viii. Centralized purchasing

Medical

- (b) Emergency and occupational medical facilities
- (c) Primary medical care services
- (d) Rehabilitation facilities
- (e) Outpatient Imaging facilities
- (f) Outpatient laboratory and pick up stations
- (g) Hospital
- (h) Preventive Medical clinic and community education outreach facility

- (i) Behavioral Medical Center with drug abuse outpatient facility
- (j) Impairment Evaluation Center
- (k) Alternative medical facility – structural care, nontraditional services
- (l) Intermediate care center
- (m) Assisted living facility
- (n) Medical supply services
- (o) Virtual reality medical training facility

Each planned city has twelve villages. These residential centers are part of a more comprehensive planned community with shopping districts, an energy park and virtual reality centers.

Stage 1

Planning for central and peripheral medical sites

Stage 2

Development of core sites

Stage 3

Development of ancillary sites

Stage 4

Development of a cohesive integrated medical model